The data controller shall ensure the security of the processed data and shall do everything to prevent unauthorised access, modification, transfer, disclosure, deletion or destruction or the accidental destruction and compromise, i.e. to ensure the protection of your personal data, in accordance with legal regulations.

The data controller processes your data in its computer database and in printed form, manually and it ensured that the processing of your electronically stored data is performed by a computer protected by a strong password and that the processing of your paper-based data is performed without the access of unauthorised people. The people entitled to get to know your data may use your data regarding the provision of the service in the extent strictly necessary for it.

The computer systems are provided with a firewall and appropriate virus protection.

As a data security warranty, the senior manager, the employees and the volunteers of the data controller shall have an obligation of confidentiality and legal liability regarding the personal data they get to know during their activity.

Rules on your rights and exercising thereof

Right of information

According to the paragraph (1) of the article 15 of the GDPR, you shall have the right to obtain information about the personal data processed by the University of Debrecen Faculty of Music. In this case, the data controller shall send the following pieces of information to your indicated contact data (e-mail address, correspondence address):

- which of your personal data are processed by the data controller;
- for which purpose of data processing;

- to whom it transfers the personal data;
- period of data processing and the aspects of the determination of such period;
- your rights regarding data processing;
- your right to submit a complaint to the Hungarian National Authority for Data Protection and Freedom of Information.

Right to request copy

On the basis to the paragraphs (3)-(4) of the article 15 of the GDPR, you shall have the right to request the copy of your personal data processed by the University of Debrecen Faculty of Music. In this case, the data controller shall send the data it processes about you to your contact information indicated by you (e-mail address, correspondence address).

Right to rectification

According to the article 16 of the GDPR, your personal data shall be modified and rectified according to your request.

Right to erasure

According to the paragraph 1) of the article 17 of the GDPR, you may request the erasure of your disclosed personal data.

Right to restriction of processing

You may request the restriction of data processing in the following cases:

- if you challenge the accuracy of the personal data, data processing shall be restricted until the data controller checks the accuracy of the personal data;
- the processing is unlawful, however, you oppose the erasure of the personal data and request the restriction of their use instead;
- the data controller no longer needs the personal data, but you require these data for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims; or
- if you exercise the right to object, data processing shall be restricted until the lawfulness of your request is assessed.

In your request on restriction, you shall indicate why you request restriction.

The data controller shall comply with your request on restriction to store your personal data separated from any other personal data, such as it saves to an external data storage medium in case of electronic data or stores the paper-based documents in a separate folder.

Right to object

You shall have the right to object against the data processing performed on the basis of the balancing of legitimate interest. In this case, the data controller shall analyse the data processing made with the legal basis of the balancing of interest regarding you and if it considers your request reasonable, your personal data shall be erased.
